

Quilting on the Bay

A Quilting Workshop

“Garden Nymph”

Saturday, March 12, 2011

Northern Great Lakes
Visitor Center
Ashland, WI

Making a face is simple using my “Garden Nymph” pattern and basic quilting skills.
Ribbon-work and sequin embellishment adds the WOW factor to this wallhanging!

© 2011 VanDemark Designs

VanDemark Designs

Presents

“Garden Nymph”

Original Design Wallhanging, 8” x10”
Fusible appliqué and embellishment

Full Day Workshop 9:30 am – 4:30 pm
Skill Level: Intermediate

The $72 price includes:
Light continental breakfast
Full day class
New pattern
Supplemental supplies
Gourmet Lunch by “Daily Bread”

For registration information, contact Ann at 715/762-4818, or email
avq@centurytel.net,
or visit www.vandemarkdesigns.com

Biography – Anna VanDemark

Growing up in an artistic family; pair clay, fabric, and art talk were always close at hand. These early influence led Anna to study art at Atelier Lack, private college renowned for classic realism. Fine arts painting and a custom tile business were Anna’s focus for 2 years until she found the wonderful world of quilt-making. Now, through the creation of her prize-winning quilts, Ann has found the ideal medium to express her love of pattern, color, nature, art fabric!

For additional area information:
www.northerngreatlakescenter.org

